

UCLA FILM & TELEVISION ARCHIVE AND
 UCLA AMERICAN INDIAN STUDIES CENTER PRESENT

IMAGINING INDIGENOUS CINEMA: NEW VOICES, NEW VISIONS

JUNE 2–18, 2023

BILLY WILDER THEATER AT THE HAMMER MUSEUM
 + VIDIOTS' EAGLE THEATRE IN EAGLE ROCK

Bursting with thought-provoking and genre-defying explorations, this film series spotlights a generation of innovative, Indigenous filmmakers working with the moving image today. By crafting narratives that center their own stories and cultures, these filmmakers establish new forms of Indigenous cinematic expression and envision Indigenous futures. Themes of post-colonial resilience, re-matriation of cultures and traditions, explorations of land-based relationships, criticism of the institutional and socio-political settler state and celebrations of Indigenous queer joy are exhibited in these vibrant works.

FREE RSVP: cinema.ucla.edu/IIC

    @UCLAFTVArchive

UCLA Library
 Film & Television Archive

UCLA
 AMERICAN INDIAN STUDIES
 CENTER

